Dear Consultee,

Update on Equality Screening and Consultations within the Public Prosecution Service (PPS)

It is important that the PPS keeps those interested in its work regularly informed of what it is doing to assess the impact of its policies as regards equality of opportunity and good relations.

This update lists internal and external policies for which the PPS has carried out a screening exercise over the period 1 April to 30 June 2016. It also includes details of forthcoming, current and closed consultations.

(a) Screening exercises completed 1 April – 30 June 2016:

Name of Policy	Brief Description	Screening Outcome
PPS Victim and Witness Policy	This revised policy describes the services that the PPS provide to victims and witnesses in cases which have been submitted to the PPS by an appropriate investigative authority. It outlines in practical terms how the PPS will meet the entitlements of victims and witnesses under the Victim Charter and forthcoming Witness Charter. Whilst the policy is directed specifically towards victims and witnesses it will also serve as a guidance document for PPS staff and external agencies on the best practice in the provision of these services.	Screened out

(b) Forthcoming consultations:

Name of Policy	Brief Description	Current Status
Court Witness Expenses Policy	The PPS is required to call the victims and witnesses of crime to court to give evidence in the prosecution of cases. This policy documents the process of inviting witnesses and reimbursing their expenses.	Due to a change in approach re design of the Victim and Witness Policy it has been decided to develop a separate policy outlining the processes of inviting witnesses and reimbursing their expenses. It is anticipated that the policy will go out for public consultation September 2016.

(c) Current consultations:

Name of Policy	Brief Description	Current Status
PPS Victim and Witness Policy	This revised policy describes the services that the PPS provide to victims and witnesses in cases which have been submitted to the PPS by an appropriate investigative authority. (d) Recently closed consultations:

Name of Policy	Brief Description	Current Status
Code for Prosecutors	The Code for Prosecutors, issued under section 37 of the Justice (NI) Act 2002, gives guidance on the general principles to be applied in determining in any case whether criminal proceedings should be brought, what charges should be preferred and how prosecutions should be conducted. It also sets out the standards of conduct that the PPS requires from prosecutors including external Counsel instructed on behalf of the Director.	New Code operational from 1st July following consultation. The Code and summary response document will be published shortly.
Draft Equality Action Plan 2016/17	The purpose of this plan is to outline the PPS's action measures to promote equality of opportunity and good relations.	This consultation closed on 20 May 2016. All responses have now been considered and a summary response document has been published. Finalised versions of both

		the Equality and Disability Action Plans have now been published.
Draft Disability Action Plan 2016/17	The purpose of this plan is to outline the PPS's action measures to promote positive attitudes to disabled people and to encourage their participation in public life.	As above.

If you or your organisation is interested in receiving any consultation documents or wish to register an interest in forthcoming work, please contact me stating if you would prefer a hard copy posted to you or an email version, providing your email address. You can also request a copy of the full screening decision on any policy in this way.

You can visit the Public Prosecution Service website at www.ppsni.gov.uk to access our equality information and can review current and previous Section 75 reports and policy screening forms (from January 2012). Any consultations undertaken by the PPS will be posted on the PPS website within the 'Consultation' area which is accessible from the home page. Other equality related information is located within the 'Equality' section.

Documents will be made available in alternative formats, for example Braille, audio CD or disk. If you have any requests for alternative formats, or if you wish to make any other comment about this equality work, please contact me through any of the ways set out below. You can also update me of any changes to your contact details that may be required for future correspondence.

Yours faithfully,

Anna Scott
