

News Release

Friday 20 March 2015

The PPS Responds to the CJINI Report in the Care and Treatment of Victims and Witnesses

The Public Prosecution Service (PPS) today welcomes the publishing of the Criminal Justice Inspection Northern Ireland (CJINI) report into the care and treatment of victims and witnesses in the Criminal Justice System in Northern Ireland.

Mr Stephen Herron, Senior Assistant Director commented

“This report not only highlights the Public Prosecution Service’s commitment to the care of victims and witnesses but also recognises the considerable progress made since the last inspection. We are pleased that there have been year on year increases in satisfaction levels reported from respondents

The PPS remains resolute in it’s commitment to victims and witnesses and will continue to work closely in partnership with the PSNI, DOJ and other statutory agencies in improving the experience of those involved in the Criminal Justice System.”

CJINI Victims and Witnesses Report March 2015

Media Enquiries please contact the PPS Press Office (028) 90 897187

ppspressoffice@ppsni.gov.uk